

Labor Ranks Break To Vote Republican, Sigler Aides Claim

(By The Associated Press)

Adherents of Governor Sigler today claimed a "break" in labor ranks in the favor of the Republican cause.

Its full significance was not immediately apparent.

However, Sigler came from a conference in industrial Flint carrying the endorsement of the president of the Genesee AFL council.

Forest Blackford, head of the council, extended his personal endorsement to Sigler Friday night.

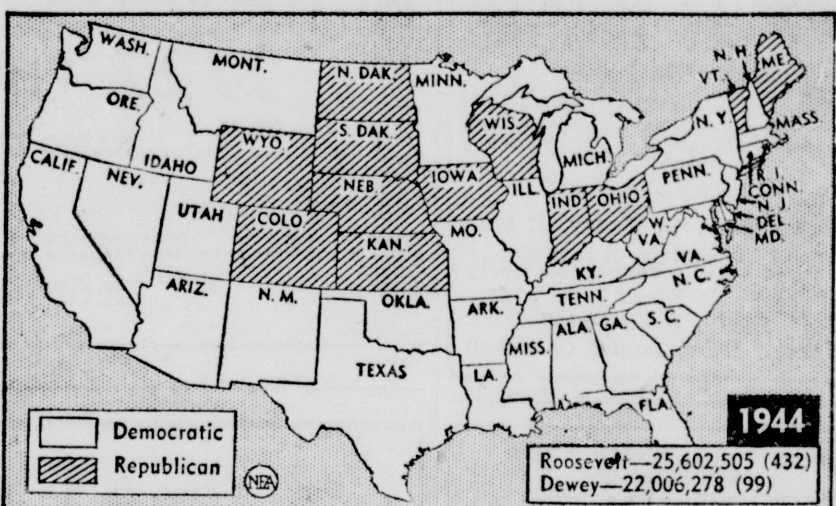

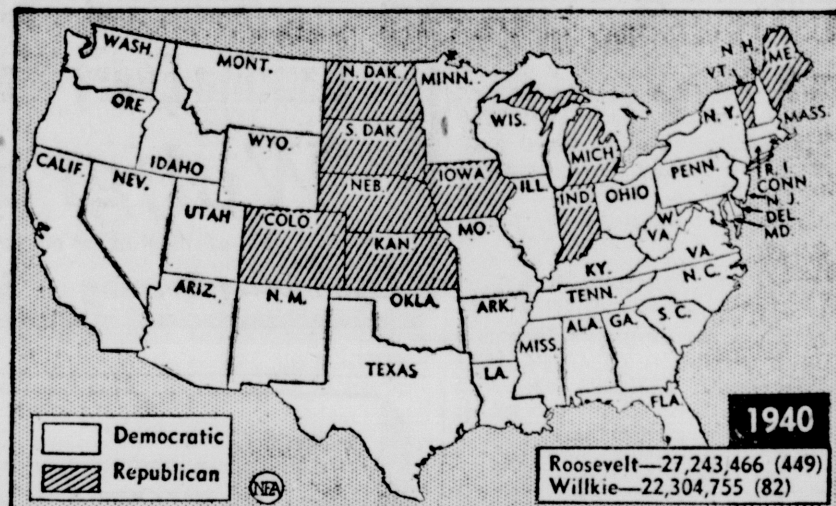

Sigler backers also claimed that he picked up some CIO support at the same time although no CIO representative's name appeared in the record.

This came about as G. Mennen Williams, the Democratic candidate, pursued Detroit's big foreign-nationality vote and Norman Thomas, Socialist presidential candidate, paid Michigan a visit.

In his private conference with Flint labor men Governor Sigler was reported to have talked with unnamed CIO representatives as well as AFL men.

His endorsement from the AFL's Blackford was a contrary move to that of official stand on the Michigan AFL.

The Michigan AFL's executive council, its governing body, has come out for Williams, who also has the formal backing of the CIO in Michigan.

Truman Out After Coal Miner Vote

Scranton Talk Attacks Taft-Hartley Act

BY ERNEST B. VACCARO

Aboard Truman campaign train, Oct. 23 (P)—President Truman met John L. Lewis' opposition head on today with a personal plea to Pennsylvania coal miners voters to help block GOP plans "to crush organized labor to the ground."

The chief executive made no reference to Lewis in an address in Scranton, Pa., but he declared the Republicans wanted to "destroy the growth" of union welfare funds for which the president of the United Mine Workers has long been an advocate.

And he paid pointed tribute to a predecessor of Lewis as head of the miners in a frank bid for votes in this anthracite stronghold of his old enemy. Lewis only recently termed Mr. Truman a "malignant, scheming individual" who was unfit for the presidency.

Off Again Sunday

The president came to the Pennsylvania coal country by special train for a day-long campaign tour which will end in a major address at Pittsburgh tonight. He will return to Washington before setting out again Sunday night for a final vote round-up in Chicago, Cleveland, Boston New York and St. Louis.

After laying a wreath at the monument of John Mitchell, who headed the mine workers before World War I, Mr. Truman spoke from the Scranton courthouse steps.

Mitchell, he said was a "great labor organizer," a "great labor statesman" and a pioneer in the development of effective collective bargaining.

Mr. Truman asked the miners to elect Harry O'Neill, Democratic candidate for congress. He attributed to the Democrats an advance in mine wages in the last 16 years from $1.70 to $14 or more a day.

The Republicans, he said, are out to curb the basic rights of working men and women.

The "shameful Taft-Hartley act," he asserted, is "only the first step in the long-range strategy of the Republican party to crush organized labor to the ground."

Another Tom Dewey Runs for President At Michigan State

East Lansing, Oct. 23 (P)—The Tom Dewey for president campaign has turned into a double feature in Michigan.

Thomas E. Dewey of Oswego, Mich., wants to be president of the United States, but Thomas R. Dewey of Grosse Pointe, Mich., would be content to be elected president of the Michigan State College freshman class.

Dewey—the freshman that is—tied for second place in the college primaries and will compete for the class presidency in the final elections Oct. 28.

Lake Crash Kills Saginaw Airman

Grand Haven, Mich., Oct. 23 (P)—A Saginaw, Mich., flier was killed yesterday when his plane crashed into Lake Michigan near Little Pointe Sable.

State Police identified the victim as Arthur Yeomans of (2303 North Oakley) Saginaw. Yeomans was returning from a flight to White Lake, Wis. His body was recovered by a Coast Guard patrol boat.

Reuther to Regain Use of Injured Arm

Detroit, Oct. 23 (P)—A nerve specialist said today he believed Walter P. Reuther, CIO United Auto Workers president, would recover full use of the arm that was shattered by a shotgun blast last April.

Dr. Ernest Woodhall of Duke University examined Reuther's arm and said he expected it to respond fully to treatment.

Football Pool Trio Expelled At M. S. C.

East Lansing, Mich., Oct. 23 (P)—Three students have been expelled and seven others placed on disciplinary probation to close an investigation of gambling on football pools at Michigan State College. College officials said today.

The announcement was made jointly by President John Hanna and Dean of Student Affairs Stanley Crowe from Lewistown, Pa., where the Michigan State football team stayed prior to today's Penn State game.

It was confirmed by college officials here.

Dean Crowe identified the expelled students as Michael P. Kolan, 22, a sophomore of 1562 Junction) Detroit; Michael As-

Russian Blockade Backfires; Gas Cut Off In Soviet Zone

Berlin, Oct. 23 (P)—Large areas of the Russian sector of Berlin were without gas today after the western powers shut the mains at sector borders to prevent seepage eastward of supplies produced by works in blockaded western Berlin.

American spokesman said the embargo against eastern Berlin was imposed for two reasons:

1. Gas pressure in Soviet mains was so low because of plant repairs undertaken there that supplies from hard-pressed western Berlin were being drained off.
2. Reprisal for firing of German non-Communist employees at head offices of the City's Gas Works, which are located in the Soviet sector.

The biggest gas works in the city are located in the U. S., British and French sectors. The Russian sector, even if all its plants were in top repair, could hardly produce enough gas to maintain a normal service.

Some Russian sector residents said the Soviets had promised them coal rations to make up for the gas deficiency.

Slush Fund Arrests Blamed On Politics

Detroit Lawyer Charges Perversion Of Law

Detroit, Oct. 23 (P)—The federal indictments of five Detroit area auto agencies and four individuals were attacked by a defense attorney today as a "perversion of the law."

A grand jury yesterday charged the group with illegal Republican campaign contributions.

Attorney Louis J. Colombo, Jr., said the grand jury's action was politically inspired.

In a statement Colombo asserted: "The indictment, coming a week and a half before election, is an obvious misuse of the judicial process by the department of justice for the purpose of currying votes by a dying political administration."

Colombo is counsel for defendants Dominic Merolillo and Myron T. Patterson, both of whose automobile firms also were named in the indictment.

The other individual defendants are Ernest R. North and Dennis A. Hickey.

A federal grand jury in Bay City previously had returned similar indictments against five Flint auto dealers and four agencies.

In each case evidence was contributed by Republican Attorney General Eugene F. Black, who has accused the GOP of "slush fund" practices.

The Bay City defendants come to trial Nov. 9. Arraignments in the Detroit case are scheduled for Wednesday.

Actress Posts Bail, Gets Fat In Jail

Los Angeles, Oct. 23 (P)—Madge Meneith is at liberty today, feeling "just fine" and having gained 25 pounds in jail.

The former actress posted $15,000 bail to gain her release after 11 months imprisonment while she was awaiting action on an appeal. Originally $100,000 bail was required.

Miss Meredith, 26, was convicted Dec. 11, 1947, and sentenced last January to five years to life imprisonment for kidnapping and assaulting her former manager, Nick Gianacis, in June, 1947.

The Gianacis suit until Nov. 20 to file reply briefs in the appeal case.

Kremlin's Answer In Berlin Dispute Expected Monday

BY JOSEPH E. DYNAN

Paris, Oct. 23 (P)—Settlement of the Berlin crisis rested today on Moscow's answer to the compromise plan offered to the U. N. Security Council by the six neutral nations of the council.

The council adjourned until Monday to give the principals in the Berlin dispute time to study the proposals. The delay apparently was to give Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky time to refer the text of the neutrals' resolution to the Kremlin for a final decision.

The western powers already had signified their acceptance of the settlement plan outlined by Argentine Foreign Minister Juan Bramuglia yesterday as spokesmen for the six nations offering the resolution.

The formula called for an immediate end to all travel and transport restrictions between the eastern and western zones of Germany and immediate calling of a four-power parity to establish the Soviet zone mark as the sole currency of Berlin, under four-power control.

The resolution called upon the four powers to conclude a currency agreement by Nov. 20 and to convene a meeting of the four-power foreign ministers council to take up all outstanding German problems within 10 days thereafter.

Vishinsky, it was learned, made a last-minute effort to persuade the neutrals to redraft the resolution so that the blockade would not have to be lifted until an agreement was reached.

The South Korean Army announced recapture of Sunchon, near the Southern tip of the country. It had fallen into the rioters' hands Wednesday after the uprising began at Yosu, a seaport 20 miles away.

Yosu itself was reported back under government control. The information came from railway police at Kwangju, capital of South Cholla province. Army confirmation was lacking, however.

It may take days, said officials to mop up remaining rebel elements on the Yosu peninsula and the Chiri mountains. Yoon estimated between 400 and 500 killed on the government side; there was no count of insurgent casualties.

The Home Minister has said the uprising was Communist-inspired, with the backing of some extreme Rightist elements at odds with the New South Korean Republic in the U. S. occupation zone. Russia controls North Korea.

Motor Ship Ablaze Off Carolina Coast

Coast Guard Rushes Aid To Venezuela Vessel

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 23 (P)—Hampered by winds of from 30 to 35 knots, crewmen on the Venezuela freighter Ciudad De Caracas battled flames today as the ship steamed towards Norfolk at 12 knots.

The Coast Guard cutter Cherokee escorted the burning vessel. A patrol plane from the Coast Guard Air Station in Elizabeth City, N. C., circled the ship but was unable to land in the rough seas.

The freighter, which left New York on Thursday, bound for La Guaira, Venezuela, radioed last night that she was afire. Three Coast Guard cutters, the Cherokee Jonquil and Agassiz were dispatched to her assistance. Two merchant ships in the vicinity changed course to go to her aid.

Early this morning the foreign flag vessel radioed that although the blaze was still out of control she did not need assistance. The Agassiz and Jonquil were recalled and the merchant ships returned to their courses.

Parents Use Flame To Punish Child; Both Sent To Jail

Pittsburgh, Oct. 23 (P)—The parents of eight-year-old Edward Kremer thrust the youngster's left hand into the open flames of a gas stove to punish him, they told a judge, not to "really burn him."

But the Allegheny county judge decided otherwise. He convicted the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Kremer, on charges of cruelty to a minor child. He fined them $200 each and jailed both for 90 days.

Edward testified yesterday "Because I stopped to play with some of my friends and was late coming home, they were angry. My father grabbed me and held his hand over my mouth and my mother held my hand over the fire."

Octogenarian Gets 10 Years In Prison

Pittsburgh, Oct. 24 (P)—Eighty-year-old John Hoopengardner enjoyed a four-hour ride to Western Penitentiary—his home for the next ten years or more—but he hopes "it don't get no worse."

Hoopengardner yesterday began a 10-to-20 year sentence for second-degree murder in the shotgun slaying of 57-year-old Ambrose W. Fisher of McConnellsburg, Pa.

His steps shaky, the octogenarian squirmed his shoulders as he entered the jail.

"It's been a nice trip so far," he said to sheriff Don Chestnut, "I hope it don't get no worse."

New Military Pact Proposed To Back Brussels Alliance

Arms To Flow Across Atlantic Next Year

BY ARTHUR GAVSHON

Paris, Oct. 23 (P)—High American sources predicted today the United States and Canada in the next few weeks will begin to draft a military treaty pledging full aid to the five-nation Brussels alliance.

The sources said the process of drafting a treaty will begin soon after the U. S. elections, although their result is not expected to affect the plan as both major parties have committed themselves in principle to backing the Brussels alliance.

The informants said the alliance would link the U. S. and Canada in formal treaty relationships with Britain, France and the Benelux countries (Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg).

The whole concept of the projected North Atlantic pact will be the main subject of discussion by the foreign ministers of the Brussels pact signatories when they meet here Monday for a three-day conference, responsible British sources said.

Congress Big Question

There remains, however, at least one major consideration—how such a treaty would fare with the United States Congress.

British informants said the foreign ministers, meeting as the consultative council of the Brussels Union, have reports from their Washington representatives of secret talks involving American state and war department officials.

They said the reports recommended that each government concerned should begin drafting a treaty.

The foreign ministers will discuss also the expressed American desire that the framework of the alliance be extended to take in other western European anti-Communist powers.

A list of countries, drawn up by the British, which they would like included if the Union is extended shows them in this order of priority—Eire, Iceland, Portugal, Denmark, Norway, Sweden, Greece, Turkey and Italy.

The American informants indicated the broad outlines of a North Atlantic alliance already are in existence. They expect the treaty will be ready for ratification and signature by the middle of 1949, barring any extraordinary developments which might call for a new approach to the whole project.

Marital Law Near In French Strikes

Cabinet Calls Reserves To Halt Violence

By ROBERT C. WILSON

Paris, Oct. 23 (P)—France moved closer to marital law today as the cabinet ordered more troops into strife-torn coal fields where at least two miners were killed yesterday. Casualties in three days of fighting neared 200.

In an emergency session the cabinet decided last night to call up the 1948 class of soldiers, who already had been discharged, and Gendarme reservists to deal with the growing violence.

The cabinet also ordered troops to use their arms in defending themselves against attacks and empowered district governors to ban any meetings, if necessary.

Immediate deportation of all foreigners taking part in battles against troops and police guarding the mines also was ordered.

The strike which began Oct. 4 has shut down almost all coal mines in France and the country has lost well over 2,000,000 tons of coal.

It has been estimated that monetary losses from the strike just about equal contributions under the European recovery program.

The government has charged the communist fomented the strike with the avowed aim of wrecking the ERP.

Bitterness Avoided In Dewey Campaign

Buses In Muskegon Tied Up By Strike

Transportation Cut Off For 70,000 Riders

Muskegon, Mich., Oct. 23 (P)—A strike of AFL bus drivers and maintenance men today left some 70,000 bus riders in the greater Muskegon area without public transportation.

The walkout at the Peoples Transport Corp. began at midnight after efforts of a fact-finding panel named by Gov. Sigler and last minute negotiations failed.

Gordon Belton, secretary of the bus company, said about 120 drivers and mechanics are involved in the strike. They are members of the Amalgamated Association of Street, Railway and Motor Bus Drivers (AFL).

The union originally asked a flat 30-cent hourly pay increase. Bus drivers now get from $1.17 to $1.27 an hour while mechanics get $1.42 and mechanics' helpers $1.12.

It was reported that late yesterday the company offered a three-cent an hour general raise. Company spokesmen indicated this offer would have brought the Muskegon bus company pay scale equal to that in Grand Rapids.

They claimed the Grand Rapids scale was the highest in Michigan with the exception of Detroit's DSR system.

Alleged Smugglers Of Done Detained By Windsor Police

Detroit, Oct. 23 (P)—Two Canadians arrested by U. S. narcotics agents and Royal Canadian Mounted Police yesterday are held in Windsor, Ont., today on $2,000 bond, charged with smuggling done.

Joseph Bell, chief of the Federal Narcotics Bureau here, said the pair had smuggled large amounts of marijuana and other dope in Detroit and Windsor. Bell said they got it across the border by vulcanizing it into the inner tubes of tires and then driving through the Detroit-Windsor tunnel.

He identified the pair as Dominic Rainone, 29, and William Best, 25, both of Windsor. They were arraigned in Windsor yesterday.

SECOND POLIO CASE REPORTED

Five-Year-Old Escanaba Girl Is At Marquette

It was reported today from the Crippled Children's Clinic at Marquette that a five-year-old Escanaba girl is receiving treatment in Marquette for infantile paralysis.

The patient is Carol Westcott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Westcott of 505 First avenue north. She was taken to Marquette one week ago Friday (Oct. 15) on the advice of her physician, who suspected she might have polio.

The case is the second to be reported from the city of Escanaba within the past couple weeks, and the cases are the first reported in Delta county within two years. The other patient, a six-year-old girl, is also receiving treatment in Marquette.

Including the latest case to be reported from Escanaba there have been a total of 21 polio cases in the Upper Peninsula so far this year.

The incidence of polio is not considered alarming and does not approach epidemic proportions, such as occurred in 1940.

Health authorities have pointed out that many cases of polio go unrecognized because the attack is slight. These are never recognized and therefore never reported.

Sunnyside P-T Unit Has Busy Meeting

An interesting business session and an entertaining program marked the October meeting of the Sunnyside Parent-Teacher association held Wednesday evening at the school. The meeting, at which Mrs. Clifford Olson presided, opened with the flag salute and assembly singing of "America the Beautiful."

The president extended a welcome to the large crowd present and after customary reports and communications led a discussion on the proposed purchase of a new gas range for the school children. Fruits and vegetables, donations of parents to the hot lunch program, were received.

The president stressed facts concerning the health program of the children in school, urged a 100 per cent membership and suggested that parents subscribe to the National Parent-Teacher magazine.

The program of the evening, arranged by Mrs. Roger Quist, was: "Pieces of Happiness," poem—Mrs. Louis Kleinman.

"Random Thoughts from Willowbrook Farm," reading—Mrs. Joseph Madalinski.

Corn guessing contest—Adolph Urbanc, winner.

"Halloween," poem—Mrs. Leslie Sundquist.

"October," poem—Mrs. Elmer Sundquist.

Mock Wedding—Bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sundquist; maid of honor, Mrs. Carl Konkell; best man, Roger Quist; preacher, Mrs. Clifford Olson; singing and music, LaVerne Sundquist and Betty McNaughton.

Contest, "Remember to Smile"—awards to Carl Konkell and Mrs. Joseph LaVigne.

Song, "My Happiness"—LaVerne Sundquist and Betty McNaughton.

After the program lunch was served by Mesdames Carl Konkell, Edgar Erickson, Joseph Madalinski, Louis Kleinman, William LaVigne, Elmer Sundquist and Cy Martin.

County To Receive $6,292 Weight Tax

The Delta county road commission in meeting today was advised by the state highway department that it will soon receive its third quarter weight tax payment for 1948. The amount to the road commission will be $6,292.13, approximately one-half less than for the similar payment last year.

William Karas, road commission superintendent-engineer, said the reduction is partly due to the fact that no half-year plates are being sold this year. The commission had anticipated as much as last year, and estimated finances for the remainder of the year must now be revised.

Road Commissioners Harry Greene, Hilding Norstrom and Henry Wylie heard Karas report that small road improvement jobs scheduled in some townships may not be carried out this year because of a breakdown of a large diesel tractor employed on a job in Fairbanks townships. The cost of repairs will be over $373 and will cause some delay before the piece of equipment can be put into use again.

Chairman Greene and Karas reported on a conference with members of the Alger county road commission and supervisors at Trenary, where cooperative plans were made for a road extension next summer on the Delta-Alger county line. The commission also approved a plat for an addition in Wells township submitted by Clarence Johnson.

St. Martin Given 90 Days In Jail

Earl St. Martin of 217 North 20th street, was sentenced to serve 90 days in jail in justice court Friday afternoon after pleading guilty to a charge of stealing $30.12 from the Washington school.

St. Martin was arrested by city police Friday morning.

Recently he was arrested for altering a check from Red Owl stores and was ordered by justice court to make restitution and assessed a fine and costs.

Election Worries GOP In Michigan

By JACK I. GREEN

Lansing (AP) — In a supposedly "Republican year," with a strong, well-organized national ticket to lead the way, Michigan Republicans suddenly are worried about defeat in the state.

Their worries, according to political gossip, rest on two factors: clear indications of a heavy Democratic majority in Wayne county and a suspicion that Governor Sigler, the leader of the ticket, is not as strong as believed.

It appears to be too late to do much about the first fear—the Wayne county Democratic trend, but the G.O.P. leaders are putting the heat on hard to get out a big Sigler vote outstate to overcome the Detroit vote. They think they need a 175,000 to 200,000 lead outstate to win.

In Wayne county, the Republicans now seem to be reaping the results of their two-year neglect to mend their political fences. Breaking the Democrats' long grip on the county in 1946, the Republicans have fallen to fighting over party leadership, have misplaced their patronage and ignored the racial groups which might have made their victory solid. At least, that's the politicians' estimate of the difficulty.

The Wayne county trend has been recognized for some time, but Republicans confidently expected a huge Dewey-Sigler vote outstate to offset it.

Then they awakened to the fact that by reason of their own strategy in the New Deal days, the presidential candidate will run on a separate ticket.

And on top of that, they are receiving daily reports that Sigler may be in trouble.

The Republican organization probably has no great love for the governor, but they would hate to lose the governorship — Sigler or no Sigler. And more than that, they know realistically that if the voters start cutting up their ballots anyone may lose.

The reports seeping into the G.O.P. headquarters in growing volume are that a lot of outstate Republicans are mad at Sigler. Whether that feeling is large enough to upset him at the polls is one of the big questions of the election.

The G. O. P. strategists cannot see their rural, small-town followers voting for G. Mennen Williams, the Democratic candidate, because of his strong labor bias and support.

But they fear a substantial number of Republicans may decide to just not vote for any gubernatorial candidate, or that they will stay away from the polls completely.

Observers doubt whether any great stay-away trend will actually result, because of the drawing power of the presidential contest. And they think that when the voter actually gets in the voting booth he will forget his irritations and vote for governor.

They also recall that the average Republican voter is a pretty orthodox creature who votes for his party instead of the man and that grumbling before hand will not show up in the ballot box.

The trouble is they don't know — and they are having fits worrying.

Powers Will Lay New School Cornerstone At Ceremony Sunday

The new school cornerstone for Powers-Spalding high school will be dedicated at appropriate ceremonies to be held Sunday afternoon, beginning at 1:30 p. m.

Many civic leaders of Delta and Menominee counties will attend. Wallace Wells, president of the Spalding township school board, will lay the cornerstone; and William Sharon, superintendent of the Spalding township schools, will introduce the principal speaker, Dr. Henry A. Tape, president of Northern Michigan College of Education.

The program will open with group singing of "America," lead by Mrs. Lionel Corey and invocation by Father Bernard Karel, pastor of St. Francis Xavier church. Rev. J. William Robertson, pastor of Zion Episcopal church, will give the benediction.

In case of inclement weather a short cornerstone ceremony will be held and the remainder of the program will be given in the Powers hall.

The Escanaba municipal band will play for the ceremonies.

Various officers of the Menominee county school boards and school officials will speak at the ceremonies.

Annual Reports Of Delta County Red Cross Unit Heard

As of July 20, 1948, the Delta county chapter of the American Red Cross had a balance on hand of $16,029.32, it was reported at the annual chapter meeting.

Its balance July 20, 1947, was $18,703.02, which was augmented by $11,235 received in the 1948 drive, $265.69 contributed by the Junior Red Cross and $427.21 from the general fund, for a total of $30,680.92. Expenditures for the last fiscal year totaled $14,652.60, leaving a balance of $16,029.32.

Expenditures last year follow: To the National Red Cross $6,468; Home service $3,537.67; administration $3,493.85; blood donors $40.70; first aid $101.74; general fund $10; ophthalmology $53.25; schools $92.32; woman's club $4.30; Junior Red Cross $377.75; roll call $407.08 and water safety $155.87.

The Delta chapter rendered assistance to 161 servicemen and their dependents, 247 veterans and their dependents and to 48 other persons. Information was given in 217 cases. Army men were given financial assistance amounting to $507.34. Navy men to the extent of $32; ex-servicemen to the extent of $1,190 and $515.27 in other cases.

Two water safety instructors attended aquatic school last year, and seven authorized instructors were under chapter jurisdiction.

Four highway first aid stations were maintained during the year, three of them newly established, at Bark River, Rapid River and Rock.

Five new first aid instructors were trained in the county by William Isaacson, and two instructors received refresher courses. First aid classes also were held and 18 certificates were issued.

The Delta chapter now has a membership of 2938 and the Junior Red Cross a membership of 42 elementary schools and nine high schools. The Junior Red Cross now has a cash balance of $264.59.

During the year they received $264.59 from enrollments. Of that money $50 was donated to the National Children's fund and $257 was remitted to the National chapter for news and the journal. Junior Red Cross has a production program and during the year made many gift boxes, games and other articles for veterans and overseas children.

Woodchucks and groundhogs are the same animal. They live in burrows which they dig themselves and belong to the squirrel family.

Dr. Beeson To Address Delta History Society

Members of the Delta county Historical Society, their friends and other interested persons will hear Dr. Lewis Beeson, Lansing, executive secretary of the state Historical Society and the Michigan Historical Commission, at a 6:00 o'clock dinner meeting Monday evening in the Delta hotel.

Frank Bender Jr., president of the Delta county Historical Society, announced that reservations for the dinner should be made before 9 a. m. Monday by telephoning No. 2129.

Dr. Beeson will address the group on the relationship of the Michigan Historical Society and the local unit. Now on a trip through the Upper Peninsula, Dr. Beeson will come here from Menominee. He has visited almost every county above the Straits, meeting persons interested in collecting and preserving material of historical significance to the state and the community.

The Delta county Historical Society was organized last spring and holds monthly meetings. Its officers and members come from many sections of the county and the meetings are held in various communities in the county, when papers on the history of that section are presented.

The establishment of a Delta county museum in which articles of historical interest will be displayed is the long-range objective of the local society. Material is also being assembled that will be invaluable in presenting a written record of the county's history.

Grayling Expansion Program Underway

Lansing, Oct. 23 (AP) — A $1,960,000 expansion program for the Michigan National Guard's camp Grayling was reported on the drawing boards today.

Guard headquarters said the state's military establishment probably will request a state appropriation of about $897,000 from the 1949 legislature to expand the camp. That would be the state's share of the program, with the remainder paid by the federal government.

The camp, designed for 4,500 men, last summer had to house 7,000 men of the enlarged guard. A spokesman said it should be expanded to accommodate 14,000 to 15,000 men. Additional roads, storehouses, mess halls, bathhouses, water and sewer facilities and headquarters' buildings will be needed, it was said.

The length of the boundary of the United States, on all points of the compass is 10,748.

Westminster Choir Will Sing Varied Program Wednesday

The Junior Chamber of Commerce announced today that it anticipates the concert of the Westminster Choir on October 27 will be one of the most generally enjoyable in recent years.

The 40 voice choir conducted by John Finley Williamson will present a program that meets the varied tastes of many individuals.

Variety is the essence in the coming concert. The music ranges from the always impressive O Magnum Mysterium (Tomas Luis da Vittoria) and Hodie Christus Natus Est (G. Pierluigi da Palestrina), through a group of American composers, with a touch of F. Melius Christianson and George Frederick Handel, on to American folk songs including "St. Louis Blues," Negro spirituals and singing square dances such as "Skip to My Lou."

This is a program that will appeal to persons who want to enjoy music when they attend a concert and dislike becoming too entangled on unfamiliar musical roads. Those who look at choral music objectively and are interested in its production will be interested to note how the conductor will handle such a number as "St. Louis Blues" and "Deaf Woman's Courtship," a diverting number that the mixed choral group seldom attempts. Both those numbers and others on the program are quite different from what one ordinarily expects of an a capella ensemble, and are numbers which provide colorful variation.

Tickets are available on a single admission basis at Gust Asp, Home Supply, Household Electric, Vaghn's Bakery Bar, Tommy's Lunch, Delta, Sherman and Ludington hotels, Johnson's garage in Bark River and from Irving Johns at the school in Gladstone. There will be a special matinee for children at 3 p. m., Wednesday at the Junior high school.

Deleware has the lowest average elevation of any state in the Union; its surface, if leveled, would be only 60 feet above the sea.

Falkies, The Champion

Frank Falkies, the 24 year old Baldwin township farmer who established a new record for potato production last year with a yield of 794.9 bushels per acre, has done it again—only better.

This year Falkies produced the almost fantastic yield of 847.2 bushels of potatoes per acre in a certified field, a mark that almost certainly will bring him the state potato championship for the second consecutive year.

Delta county and, for that matter, the entire Upper Peninsula has reason to be proud of this outstanding achievement. Delta county's position as the state's No. 1 potato growing area continues unchallenged.

It is not alone the outstanding accomplishment of young Farmer Falkies that deserves comment, however. No less than 13 Delta county potato growers developed yields of 600 bushels per acre or more this season, including two young 4-H club youths.

Not too many years ago the objective of potato growers was to attain a yield of 300 bushels per acre. Today that kind of a yield is considered virtually a crop failure. Better soil preparation and particularly better farming practices have combined to shove the standards ever higher, not only in total production but in quality of the crop as well.

Although our potato industry has come a long way in the past dozen years or so, it still faces a major challenge in commanding the midwestern market to which it is entitled by geographical location and quality of its product. Midwestern housewives must be taught through the educational process that Michigan potatoes are at least the equal of potatoes from Maine and Idaho.

Champions Of Liberty

Governor Dewey declared in New York Wednesday night that the bitter sacrifices of two World Wars has taught us once and for all that there can be no isolation for America.

The Republican presidential candidate declared that the United States is now the decisive factor in world peace and added, "There can be no withdrawal from a world where freedom and tyranny are locked in a deadly struggle for survival."

Thus, the man who in all probability will be the next president of the United States stated his position on American foreign policy in language that cannot be misinterpreted or misunderstood.

Dewey said at the New York Herald Tribune forum, "Division and dissent are an invitation to the aggressor. We will put them behind us. The task of waging peace should be above partisanship. . . . American will stand before the world as one country and one people, believing deeply in the cause of peace."

The absolute essentiality of this policy is readily apparent in a world engrossed in the cold war of democracy vs. Communism. If we were to abandon our role as the world champion of freedom, the forces of communism would quickly crush the spark of democratic government that flickers in so many impoverished nations abroad. We have no choice except to recognize the evils of communism for what it is, a sharp dagger pointed at the heart of individual liberty everywhere, including even our own United States.

Why Potter Is Popular

Politicians generally are notorious for their dodging of controversial issues, particularly in an election campaign, but not so with Congressman Charles Potter. Speaking at a banquet in his honor Thursday night, Mr. Potter called for questions from his listeners. He answered each question with amazing candor and without any inclination to dodge the issues.

It is refreshing to hear a congressional candidate with this degree of frankness and particularly pleasing to know that this is the man who represents the 11th district in Washington. Whether one agrees with Rep. Potter's viewpoint on controversial issues or not, his courage must command general respect.

Likewise, the voters in the 11th district are impressed with the sincerity of Rep. Potter's desire to do a good job in Washington upon behalf of his constituency. He emphasizes recognition of his obligation to represent all of the people in the district, regardless of political affiliation or social status. Anyone who has had occasion to write to Congressman Potter for information or assistance knows that he does not give mere lip service to this policy.

Although he lost his legs in World War II, Rep. Potter does not appear for a sympathy vote to return him to congress. Actually the loss of his legs does not constitute a burden for him in fulfilling his duties. He walks amazingly well and without assistance with the use of artificial legs. He has earned his spurs in congress by accomplishment and his reelection by a tremendous majority on Nov. 2 is a foregone conclusion.

Danger Of Monoxide Gas

Every year as cold weather arrives and particularly in winter when snow blankets the ground, the hazard of carbon monoxide takes a heavy toll of casualties. The danger is one that all motorists especially should be aware of and one that can be easily avoided with the exercising of a reasonable degree of caution.

In a closed garage the oxygen in the air is used up rapidly by a running automobile motor and is replaced by deadly carbon monoxide gas. The gas, which is odorless, causes unconsciousness and then death to its victims.

Leaky mufflers and exhaust pipes in automobiles are a constant source of danger to motorists, especially when cars are parked and the motors kept running to provide heat to occupants. Heavy snowfalls nearly always are followed by a sharp rise in the carbon monoxide casualty lists because snow frequently plugs exhaust pipes, especially if cars are held in snowdrifts.

The wise motorist will check his automobile exhaust system now before the danger of monoxide poisoning becomes acute. He will never keep his motor running in a closed garage nor keep the motor running if the car is snowbound on an unplowed highway.

Other Editorial Comments

THE ROMANTIC ISLES

(New York Herald Tribune)

Something over a thousand letters and inquiries have already flooded into the local offices of the war assets administration as a result of the government's announcement of its intention to sell a job lot assortment of obsolete sea-coast fortifications and the islands on which they are, for the most part, located. This is a moving testimonial to the continuing power of that ancient spell which lonely islands and similar seagirt real estate have always exercised over the errant human imagination. A rocky and barren islet, particularly if it includes a few mossy gun emplacements, sand-choked magazines and casemates and vine-clad observation towers has an irresistible appeal. No waving palms are available in Casco bay or at the east end of Long Island sound, but the properties now offered are not without their bone-white beaches, their booming surf, their inland jungle thickets and moated isolation from the demands of a subway-and-office civilization. Most of them, also, have their legends of buried treasure; and though the legends are spurious, Fort Terry on Plum island is only three or four miles from the fabulous Gardens of Elysium, where the only authentic treasure ever left by Captain Kidd was, actually, recovered.

TELLTALE FIGURES

(Boston Globe)

The census bureau calls to our attention the fact that there will be 95,000,000 men and women of voting age in the United States on election day. Of these only 40,525,000, or 59.5 per cent, will vote, if we have a turnout like that of 1940, the last peace-time presidential year. The atmosphere of apathy regarding the campaign, supported by Hooper ratings showing lessened interest in candidates' radio speeches, indicates that the total may well be less.

Of the 95,000,000 over 21, two million are without American citizenship, and there are others disqualified because they are inmates of penal institutions or residents of Washington, D. C. In the south, poll tax laws disfranchise many; others usually stay home on election day because the Democratic party has no contest in their state. And throughout the nation, millions will not vote, either because they lack civic spirit, or see nothing on the ballot to attract their interest. The census department has given us some telltale figures, in letting us know that more than two-fifths of those over 21 will fail to visit a polling booth Nov. 2.

Take My Word For It . . .

Frank Colby

READERS WANT TO KNOW

Arlington: When General Pershing died and lay in state, one commentator spoke of "the late General's BY-er." Is there any sanction for that pronunciation of the word bier?—A. G. D.

Answer: Certainly not! Bier is pronounced exactly like the word beer.

Mobile: Why is earnest money so called?—M. W.

Answer: Earnest money is a payment made to bind a contract. . . . It is a legal token that both buyer and seller are in earnest. Earnest money was once called "God's penny," thus giving religious sanction, as well as legal sanction, to contracts.

Los Angeles: Isn't the pronunciation "pragh" for Prague incorrect?—A. F. P.

Answer: Not any more. The spelling Prague is French and English. Formerly the English pronunciation rhymed with vague; but pragh now prevails. The Czech spelling is Praha, pronounced: PRAH-hah.

Richmond: Here is a clipping from one of your recent columns. Note these spellings: "polimvelitis, poliomyelitis, poliomyelitis." Where's your blue-back speller, Colby?—T. C. D.

Answer: The proofreader borrowed it. Program note: Newscaster Elmer Davis does not say "pro-grm." He says "program" to rhyme with "go, Sam."

Charlotte: Occasionally I hear some one try to pronounce the "r" in Mrs., making it sound like "miseries." Can this be right?—

Truman Getting Little Help

BY MARQUIS CHILDS

Washington.—With some objective evidence to support their claim, Democratic strategists believe that a trend has set in away from candidate Dewey and in the direction of candidate Truman. If the campaign could go on until Thanksgiving, the realists quickly add, the president would have a chance.

Quite apart from public boasts made for political reasons, these same realists are confident that the Democrats will capture control of the Senate. They list Democrats in Wyoming, Oklahoma, Minnesota and West Virginia as sure to defeat Republican incumbents, with Iowa as a strong possibility for a similar upset.

If the four victories come through, and no Democratic seats are lost, the Democrats would control by a majority of 49 to 47. Several Democratic senators are in close contests.

A Dewey landslide in popular votes looks a lot less likely than it did a month ago. On the other hand, the Republican majority in the electoral college still promises to be top-heavy.

BIG CROWDS GREET TRUMAN

Democratic advisers can cite some fairly substantial reasons for the change in trend that they see. One is the deep impression that President Truman appears to have made in the course of his recent swing through the Midwest on the large crowds that came out to hear him. The force of the Truman attack on the Republican Congress and the Republican party seems to be getting through.

Along with this goes a natural human sympathy for a fighter who is struggling so hard to come up from the bottom. Truman, in the popular imagination, is assuming the role of David, hurling his stone at the Republican giant of wealth, power and efficiency.

The president is making his fight almost alone. Virtually the only cabinet officer giving him any effective support is Secretary of Labor Maurice Tobin who was appointed after the Democratic convention at Philadelphia. Tobin is speaking around the country up to the limit of his endurance and there are far more demands than he can fill. Secretary of Agriculture Charles F. Brannan has filled a few engagements.

That is just about the score. Some of the men who have been most eager to take the presidential ride, rising out of dimmest obscurity thanks to their good friend, Harry, are sitting this one out.

Among the little handful of men loyally working for Truman's election there is ironic laughter over Secretary of Interior Julius Krug. Krug is supposedly campaigning for Truman in the West where issues under his province, such as water power and conservation, are to the fore. But thus far it is a secret campaign, since no word of it seems to have leaked out to the press.

LABOR STARTED TOO LATE

In contrast, a former secretary of interior, Harold L. Ickes, after breaking violently with the president, is now like a retired fire hose who hears that old alarm bell. He is ready to charge off in all directions in Truman's behalf and he has begun in the old curmudgeon fashion to toss off epithets and acid adjectives.

Any discussion of Democratic hopes brings up so many ifs. If only organized labor had started in August the kind of get-out-the-vote drive that began a month ago.

Any little straw in the wind is seized upon. Thus Alaska's early autumn elections showed a complete reversal of the Republican tide of two years ago, with Democrats capturing control of both houses of the territorial legislature and re-electing Bob Bartlett, Democrat and New Dealer, as territorial delegate to the Congress. For 30 years Alaska's elections have accurately forecast the national result.

In contrast to Truman, Dewey appears aloof and even cold. His high-level campaign, so carefully planned and so deliberately staged, has not drawn a very enthusiastic response from train-side crowds.

Little things often count for more than big things in public reaction.

Dewey's slip in a moment of irritation and apprehension when he referred to the engineer of his train as a lunatic who should be shot at sunrise is the kind of episode that starts speculation about the candidate's temperament and character. In the early stages of a campaign such an episode can count more than major speeches.

This is the home stretch. In the lexicon of the professional politician nothing said or done—short of some really sizable blunder—can affect the outcome.

P. G.

Answer: Never. Mrs. is the abbreviation of mistress, but the mistress pronunciation has long been obsolete. The Standard American pronunciation is: MISS-ee. In the South, many people say: mizz.

Milwaukee: Please pronounce the name Waco (Texas). I've heard it as "WACK-oh."—Reader.

Answer: It's WAY-koe. Another Texas name frequently mispronounced is Brazos, the name of an important river and valley. A newsreel commentator recently called it "BRAY-zuss." Some dictionaries show it as "BRAH-zoess." But neither is heard in Texas. Texans say: BRAZuss. The Spanish-American pronunciation is: BRAH-zoess.

The correct use of shall-will, should-would is made easy by Mr. Colby's non-technical key. A valuable reference for teachers, students, and all writers. For a copy, send 5c in coin, and a stamped, self-addressed envelope to him, care of Escanaba Daily Press, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y.

May Its Light Never Fail

Good Evening

By Clint Dunathan

OFF TO JAPAN—Miss Elizabeth Clarke of Sparta, Wis., a faculty member of Escanaba Junior high school last year, today is aboard the S. S. Frederick Lykes enroute to Japan.

There she will teach English for three years in a Japanese school under the auspices of the Board of Missions of the Methodist church. She is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin and taught science in the Junior high school here.

This past summer she attended an introduction to the Japanese language and customs and beliefs; and also took a course at Columbia university in the teaching of English. She is one of about 50 other Methodist sponsored instructors who prepared to teach in Japan under the Fellowship of Christian Reconstruction program. All of the instructors are in their 20's and their job is to teach Christianity and promote world understanding.

THE DELAYS—Because of the shipping strike on the West Coast it was impossible for Miss Clarke to obtain passage to Japan as early as she had expected.

In letters to her friends in Escanaba she tells of the advantage, at least to her, of the delay. There were so many preparations to be made. Then came the opportunity for passage to Japan out of New Orleans on the S. S. Lykes—a freighter. Miss Clarke and two other girls were bound for Japan. They arrived in New Orleans, rushed through quantities of shopping necessary for the trip and waited for the ship to arrive. That gave them an opportunity to look around New Orleans for a day.

On Oct. 6 the S. S. Lykes dropped her pilot at the entrance to the Gulf of Mexico and sailed toward Panama—loaded with cotton and soybeans for China and Japan, and 11 passengers including Miss Clarke and the other missionaries of Christianity and good will.

LIFE AT SEA—"The gulf is smooth as glass," Miss Clarke writes. "Sea life is great, but I may change my tune. The water is the most beautiful blue I have ever seen. It reminds me of a tub of water with blueing in it, which may not be a romantic comparison. And imagine fining rainbows in the water. Just as the waves break the spray causes the light to be refracted; and the loveliest colors are so closely blended, disappearing and reappearing between the waves. We lounged on deck chairs, read, slept after every page, or watched the flying fishes play."

The second day brought wind and hot weather and more opportunities to get acquainted with the other passengers. The passengers included a couple of Filipino descent (American citizens) and their young daughter, who was born in a Japanese internment camp during the late war. They were returning to Manila.

PANAMA CANAL—Four days after leaving New Orleans, Miss Clarke wrote again to Escanaba friends. "This has been a thrilling experience going through the three sets of locks and six levels of the

INTO THE PAST

Ten Years Ago

Escanaba—Mr. and Mrs. William Kelly and Tommy Beggs left Friday afternoon for Milwaukee where they will attend Parent's Day exercises at Marquette university, and the Marquette Christian Texas football game.

Escanaba—Mrs. Martin Petersen has returned from Bay City, Mich., where she visited during the past week with her son.

Manistique—Mr. and Mrs. John McCracken have returned to their home in Detroit following a visit here at the home of Rev. and Mrs. D. Huenink. Mr. McCracken is the representative of the Michigan Synod.

Gladstone—Miss Margaret Hartwig of Peoria, Ill., is spending the weekend visiting as the guest at the Joseph LaFramboise, Lake Shore drive.

Twenty Years Ago

Escanaba—Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Black of South Bend, Ind., who have been visiting Mrs. Black's parents, M. A. and Mrs. Sam Dunn, have left for their home.

Escanaba—Mrs. Archie Doucette and daughter, Jeanette, of Chicago who have spent two weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Isadore Chartrand, sr., South 10th street, have left for their home.

Manistique—Emmett McNamara, who is a student at Ferris Institute, Big Rapids, arrived in the city Saturday to visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. McNamara, Walnut street.

Panama Canal. And the lush tropical hillside has been an unusual sight for a mid-westerner. There have been cocoanut trees, palm trees, banana trees. After the first set of locks we passed through a very large lake flanked by many islands of tropical appearance. After passing out of the lake our ship wound through a small channel barely wide enough for it to pass. On either side was tropical forests and beyond that the deeper green of tremendous hills. Frequently there were lovely waterfalls cascading down the sides of the hills, and along the channel in some places were sheer drop-offs of rock.

"Right now we are passing through the last set of locks. At the first set we went up three different levels, like steps. The water flowed in and lifted us up. At other places we were let down to a much lower level. Now we have been lowered to the level of the Pacific ocean—and at last we are really on our way. Within seven or eight days we will be in San Pedro, Calif., where we will refuel and perhaps have the opportunity to go ashore for a few hours."

BE PREPARED—From San Pedro the S. S. Lykes will start the voyage to Japan. In San Pedro Miss Clarke and the other teachers will purchase the rest of the supplies they need to take with them—including such items as nails, hammers, and tools and to repair their own shoes. She had also been advised to bring as much woolen clothing as possible for the winters are cold in the Fukoku district where she will go.

Miss Clarke made some of her purchases in New Orleans, found that she could not take all she wished from that port because an export license would have been required. So the shopping was completed at San Pedro, and by this time Miss Clarke, with her hammer and nails, text books and Bible, is on the Pacific enroute to Japan.

Hollywood

BY BOB THOMAS

Hollywood, Oct. 23 (AP)—Gregory Peck, who seems to keep a level head despite his rocketing rise to stardom, tells how he does it.

Other new stars have soared as rapidly in recent years, but none has earned such a solid position in the movies. In fact, many of the stars who came up during the war years are now displaying the frailty of their popularity.

Not so Peck. The lanky LaJolla lad has his feet firmly fixed on Hollywood soil. And with good reason. He has enjoyed a succession of important pictures. Not only that, he has borne his fame gracefully.

Peck is a source of constant amazement to the Hollywood press corps. Many stars pose as self-effacing, but his modesty doesn't seem to be phony. He apparently refuses to believe he is as important as producers think he is. He is never too busy to do favors or grant interviews.

Avoid Pitfalls Naturally, this phenomenon intrigued me. So I benched him on the "Great Sinner" set, where he is already pretty well bearded for his role as Dostoevski. Here's his philosophy:

"If acting is an art, it is an art only as Laurence Olivier, Raimu, Ralph Richardson, Fredric March and those of similar caliber practice it. There are no pitfalls if you have a healthy respect for acting, if you keep in mind improving your work."

"If there are more pitfalls in the picture business than on the stage or elsewhere, it is because of the abnormal spotlighting of personalities. If you realize the wordage turned out on you is no more than part of the business, it ceases to be a pitfall."

"Another part of picture technique that contributes a possible pitfall not afforded on the stage is the protection an actor enjoys in films. On the stage you are on your own for two hours in front of an audience. In pictures if you let a scene drop in spite of retakes and direction, the cutter can switch over to the other actors for re-creation."

"Just keep your mind on your work and keep some of the real actors in mind—and you haven't time for pitfalls."

America is not a melting pot at all, it is a symphony. The precious groups that have come to these shores must not disappear into an assimilative cauldron. They must retain their uniqueness which has come out of their special heritage.—Dr. Abram Leon Sacher, president of the new Brandeis University.

Today our national life swings along on a steady cadence of national optimism. The tragic era of confusion, extravagance, and costly economic dislocation and costly administrative bungling is at an end.—Ren. Joseph W. Martin (R) of Massachusetts.

The gap between what we believe as American ideals and what we practice is creating a moral dry rot within us. We must act now because the mental health of America is threatened by this gap.—Mrs. Sadie T. M. Alexander, attorney who was a member of President Truman's Committee on Civil Rights.

I don't like to do sexy roles, but I know I'm good in them.—Rita Colten, New York television actress.

Secretary of State Marshall is plainly inadequate and the American foreign policy just doesn't make sense.—Alf M. Landon, former governor of Kansas.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

BY DREW PEARSON

Chicago—Out here in the Middle West, farm voters have begun to learn something about the big Washington lobbies and what they did to the 80th Congress. The farmers learned the hard way—and they aren't too happy about it. For the lobbies have to send the price of corn skidding to uncomfortable lows.

Most interesting thing about the big grain lobby is that its backstage operators were largely Argentines and French refugees. Working behind-the-scenes through American stooges, they put the following two vital provisions through the 80th Congress.

1. Prohibited the government from acquiring more storage space for wheat and corn purchased at parity prices from farmers. Since the government is barred from renting additional storage for the bumper crop, it can't buy all of the grain now going to market, and farmers lacking storage have to sell out at lower prices.

2. Tucked into the Marshall Plan act was an innocent provision that the Marshall Plan administrator shall "utilize private channels of trade." The grain lobby not only put this through Congress, but has now pressured Paul Hoffman into ruling that the commodity credit corporation, highly efficient U. S. agency which has bought grain for Europe for years, is now by-passed, and more expensive private brokers will buy the grain instead.

Farmers and the taxpayers bear the extra cost.

—Argentine-Refugee Lobby— The "Big Three" of the grain trade are the chief beneficiaries from the latter 80th Congress joker. They are:

1. Bunge Corporation, owned by Bunge and born of Argentina and Uruguay.
2. Continental Grain Corp., owned by the following Park Avenue Refugees: Jules, Rene and Michel Fribourg, Louis Ullman and Lucien Lang.

3. Leval And Co., controlled by a 3-man voting trust—Fernand Leval, Leopold Stern and Jacques Kayloff.

These three groups worked with and through the North American Grain Export association and the National Grain Trade council. Their chief buttonholer on Capitol Hill was ex-Congressman Roger Slaughter of Kansas City whom President Truman purged in the 1946 elections.

Slaughter, though a Democrat, rates higher with Republicans than with his own party, and had no trouble corraling Congressional votes. In fact, he did a masterful job.

Slaughter's ace-in-the-hole was his old friend, Congressman Jesse Wolcott of Michigan, chairman of the House Banking and Currency committee, who insisted on inserting a provision in the commodity credit charter that the government could not acquire additional storage space.

Formerly the government could store 300,000,000 bushels, but this year only 50,000,000; so the price of grain received by many farmers has tumbled below parity.

Note—despite the lobbying law, Slaughter failed to register as a lobbyist. However, the Justice Department unearthed a letter written by the Northwestern Grain Export association, March 31, soliciting contributions from its members to pay Slaughter's salary. The Justice Department put Slaughter's case before one Grand Jury, but did not push prosecution—perhaps because it was feared Truman would be accused of persecuting an old political enemy.

—Illinois Gambling Politics— One of the most respected and efficient members of Congress during the past decade has been G. O. P. Rep. Everett Dirksen of Pekin, Ill., now stepping out to join the Dewey entourage. Out in rock-ribbed Illinois, the Republicans aren't too happy about the man they are supposed to elect as his successor—Judge Harold Velde.

Velde has received heavy financial support from Bill Degris of the night-club gambling fraternity, and the other day one of his campaign managers had a highly significant conversation with Harry Neumiller, president of the Huniube Manufacturing Co., of Peoria.

Mistaking Harry for his brother, L. B. Neumiller, who is president of the Caterpillar Tractor Co., Velde's solicitor asked for a campaign contribution. Harry Neumiller declined.

"You better thing that over," replied Velde's money-raiser. "Don't forget that Judge Velde sits on the Tazewell county court and has a lot to say about fixing taxes for the county. Don't forget that the Caterpillar Tractor Company's property is all in Tazewell county."

"You happen to have the wrong man," replied Harry Neumiller. "But if you think blackmail will get a campaign contribution out of either me or my brother, you're mistaken."

Later Harry's brother, L. B. Neumiller, head of the Caterpillar Tractor Co., was approached for a Velde contribution.

"You know perfectly well it's against the law for a corporation to contribute," L. B. Neumiller replied.

"Yes, but there are ways of getting round that," was the pointed suggestion. Neumiller, however, did not take the suggestion.

Meanwhile Velde has had lots of financial support from the gambling-liquor fraternity which, in Tazewell county and Peoria county alone, contributed $35,000 to the 1944 campaign of Velde's political friend, Gov. Dwight Green.

A doctor successfully removed a whistle a boy had swallowed. The lad likely didn't want to be a traffic cop.

People who views things with alarm usually alarm things with their views.

RUARK LIKES MIAMI BEACH

Even Poor People Are Rich There

BY ROBERT C. RUARK
Miami—Oh, today I am a resident of Miami Beach, and I don't care if the swimming pool is full of porpoises. So what if the house is a little lighter than usual, because we haven't found the roof yet? You can't beat the climate. Who said hurricanes? In California they got earthquakes. There's nothing wrong with hurricanes that a few million dollars won't fix, and down here even the poor people are rich. Has Hollywood got the kind of palm trees Miami's got? No sir. Down here we put hinges on 'em, so the big breeze just bends 'em over easy.

Clinchy visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Sundin at Arrowhead Inn.

Francis Gouin and Dale Johnson have left for their base in New Jersey after a 15-day furlough at their parental homes.

Mrs. Jonas Sjogren and Mrs. Ed Olsen spent the weekend with the John and Alfred Erickson families in Stephenson.

Mrs. Nellie Hackerman has returned from a week's visit with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bowman of Gulliver.

Mrs. Herman Freytag and son, Donnie, have arrived from St. Helen's, Ore., to visit at the Carl Freytag home, with other relatives and friends in Isabella and with Mrs. Freytag's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cox of Escanaba. The Freytags have been living in Oregon for the past eight years.

SAFETY HEADQUARTERS

Do you want to know what the motorwise press has in mind when it talks about "the biggest advance since the self-starter"?

Do you want to know how it feels to command the smoothest flow of power to be found on land, on sea, or in air?

Then settle yourself behind the wheel of a Buick Roadmaster, and try out Dynaflo Drive.*

Here, you will find, is something vastly more than "no clutch" driving.

It's a brand-new way of transmitting the driving force from an engine to the rear wheels — without buck or bobble.

*You get Dynaflo Drive, at extra cost, on Roadmasters only.

What I like about the place is there's something doing all the time. Never a dull moment. Like the day the octopus came up in the swimming pool. Swam right in through the intake pipe. Never a dull moment, and I really, truly do like this strait-jacket. So snug and comfy.

New Queen Every Day

So the front lawn is full of dead fish. So they smell a little high. So what? That's the beauty of this climate. Up north it costs money to fertilize the grass. Down here mother nature does it for you, every fall. For free.

Hollywood's beautiful women. Phooey. Down here we got a new queen every day. Orange queen. Grapefruit queen. Cracked-crab queen. Miss Prickly Pear, 1948. Every time six Miami's pause to talk on the sidewalk, they elect a queen to commemorate the event. Miss Crap Game, 1949.

What I like about it is there's so much of it. Everything, I mean. More hotels. More hotel owners jumping out of windows at the end of the season. More sand. More sky. More turkey-burgers on rye. More coconut-type beverage. More car hops. More slogans. More New York hoodlums. More silver-fox. More fat dames in shorts and halters. More adolescents on motor-scooters. More mosquitoes... oops. Been a very unusual season. Never er remember seeing mosquitoes before.

I see where the other big cities are afraid to invite the American Legion to convene, because sometimes the boys get a little lickered up and wash down the hotel lobbies with a fire-hose or set fire to strange ladies, for fun. Miami wasn't afraid to ask 'em down. After that last hurricane, even the American Legion is anti-climax. Who minds a little water in the lobby when they've had barracuda swimming in the living room? No, son, that ain't no lake. That's a golf course. Was a golf course.

Hollywood. Some more phooey. Has Hollywood got Havana a short hour away? The closest civilization to Hollywood is Hawaii. Has New York got jai-alai games to gamble on? Has it got dog tracks? Can you see Flamingos at Belmont? Has Washington got scorpions to crawl in your shoes? All New York has got is the same nightclub entertainers, bookmakers, touts, high rollers and honky-tonk queens that you can see down here without wearing a necktie, and at only twice the price. But you have to pay a little something extra for the climate. Greatest little climate you ever did see.

Where else can a gentleman wear a purple satin sports ensemble without getting chased off the street? Where else can a lady do her shopping in what seems to be her underwear, but is dignified by the title of playsuit? Has Chicago got the Orange Bowl? Has Pittsburgh got Charlie Farrell?

Love my home town. Love this Miami-ah. That's what you call it. Miami-ah. Love that climate. Love that sunshine. Love that sand in my sheets.

HIT OF THE YEAR!

Have you tried DYNAFLOW?

You have a drive that gets completely away from gears which have to shift.

You have a drive that takes you from a standing start — through every speed range — with a steady, willing swoop of power.

You have in Dynaflo a built-in supercharging assembly that combines the smoothness of oil with an instant response to acceleration.

You have, in other words, eager starts, easy-striding climbs, an unfettered pace on the straightaway — controlled by the gentle nudge of your toe on the gas treadle.

Except for parking or backing, there's nothing to do but steer the car, in a whole day's drive.

In ten wonderful minutes, you can check all these facts for yourself.

First step to this great adventure is to give us a call. Then we'll let nature take its course. But we might give you one hint: We'll be glad to book your order, whether or not you have a car to trade.

Attractive House Designed to Allow Future Expansion

Upstairs Rooms May Be Left Unfinished Until Needed

Whether it is built of brick, stucco or with shingled or clapboarded walls, "The Buzzards Bay," which is introduced today by the Home of the Week Plan Service will have homey charm.

The house has been planned with a view to future expansion. An owner with limited funds could leave the second floor unfinished until it is really needed. The first floor room is a complete unit including two bedrooms and bath. The finishing of the second floor would add two more spacious bedrooms and a lavette.

The house has a wealth of storage facilities—10 closets for clothing and linens, three tiers of drawers built under the eaves in the second floor bedrooms, and a compartment under the eaves for trucks, hand luggage and other seldom used articles.

Planting Hides Elevation

Foundation walls rise just sufficiently above the ground to allow for window ventilation of the cellar. Foundation planting hides this elevation and gives the cottage a close-to-the-ground look. The setback break of the front elevation provides a touch of distinction without upsetting the balance of the central entrance and its flanking pairs of windows. The trellised porch at the side of the house—which could be screened or glassed in if desired—has French doors opening into both living and dining rooms.

Over-all dimensions of the house are 29x33 feet, and the piazza adds seven feet to the width. Thus, a lot with not less than 60-foot frontage would be required. A cottage of this style also needs to be set well back from the sidewalk line to show to advantage—a fact that should be considered in the selection of the lot. The cubic content of the dwelling is 20,200 feet.

If the second floor is to be completed later, this fact should be kept in mind when construction of the house is begun. All heating and plumbing pipes should be extended to the second floor and capped until needed. The building of the shed dormer on the rear roof can also be done

Double Action Door Has Been Improved

Double action doors between kitchen, butler's pantry and dining room are being included in the plans of many new homes. Older homes may benefit from the same convenience, however, as regular doors may be replaced with those of double action.

Double acting door closers can now be obtained which are concealed in the woodwork over the door. Hold-open features are regarded as standard in most fixtures of this kind. Simple to install and adjust, the mechanism is entirely out of sight and no cutting of the floor is said to be necessary.

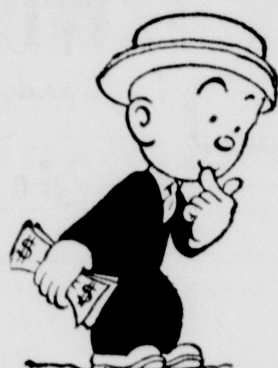

more economically at the time of construction than later on. Always in a house of this style, insulation should be installed over second-floor ceilings, and louvers placed in the gable ends of the roof for ventilation.

Hall Gives Good Circulation

An L-shaped hall centrally located on the first floor gives good circulation from room to room. Arches between the living room and dining room and both front and central halls eliminate the expense of doors for these openings.

The fireplace in the 18½x13½-foot living room is of the flush mantel type. The kitchen is well planned, with the refrigerator set in a wall niche; sink centered in an L-shaped working counter and the range conveniently placed beside a wall cabinet. A built-in ironing board is so placed as to be accessible from either side, when it is lowered for use.

Complete plans and specifications for this "Home of the Week", or any other design of this series, are available at moderate cost. To ascertain the exact price of these documents, write to the Home Building Editor, Daily Press, and enclose a self-addressed envelope bearing a 3-cent stamp. At least one week should be allowed for a reply. (Released by the Home of the Week Plan Service, Providence 6, R. I.)

THIS IS ONE DEER
ENJOY EATING!

A General Electric Home Freezer
keeps game and fish fresh for months!

THIS YEAR you won't have to gorge on venison until you're ready to swear off hunting, and then hunger for the stuff half the winter.

With a General Electric Home Freezer, you just freeze the fish and game you get. You eat the food you want when you want it.

A General Electric Home Freezer is grand for freezing and storing vegetables and fruits, baked goods, and ice cream. Your wife saves work and you save money on these foods.

To be sure of every satisfaction a home freezer can offer, be sure you get a General Electric.

The sealed-in refrigerating system is the same type as that used in General Electric Refrigerators. More than 1,700,000 of these systems have been in service ten years or more.

In repeated laboratory tests, the General Electric Perfect Seal cabinet construction proved so efficient that it kept food frozen for several days after the current was shut off.

Do this—today!

Put on your hat, and take your wife by the hand to our store. Let us show you how the General Electric Home Freezer can pay for itself over the years . . . and what a wonderful convenience it is for you—and for her!

Marbey B. Judd,
Samuel Petrie
Exchange Vows

Mrs. Marbey Boes Judd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest F. Boes of Wells and Samuel I. Petrie of Holder, Florida, spoke their marriage vows in a ceremony this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the parsonage of Salem Ev. Lutheran church.

The service was read by Rev. William F. Lutz.

Attending the couple were Mr. and Mrs. George Erdman.

The bride wore a dress of plum crepe with a navy Breton hat with feather trim and navy accessories and her flowers were a corsage of light pink pompons and Johanna Hill roses with a deep wine center. Mrs. Erdman wore a royal blue dressmaker suit with black and gold accessories and a corsage of yellow and bronze pompons.

A reception is being held from 3 to 6 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents. Centering the bridal table is the three-tiered wedding cake, with a white bell and dove top ornament encircled with flowers, and arranged with are flowers and matching tapers.

The couple will live in Wells at 25½ Main street. The bride is with the Wells post office. Her husband is employed by the Girard Electric Company.

Collection Of Clothing Sent To Orphanage

A shipment of used clothing collected through the cooperation of the Sisters and pupils of St. Ann's school has been made to Christ the King orphanage in Tokyo, Japan, it was announced today.

The clothing which was sorted and packed by the welfare committee of the Daughters of Isabella was shipped in care of Pfc. John R. Watts, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beaudry, 306 South 10th street, who first called attention to the need of aid for the orphanage in a letter to his mother.

No further shipment will be made now and those who planned to donate clothing to this cause are asked to give it to some other worthy group.

Story Hour At Bethany Church

An hour of song and story will be held for the primary children, grades 1-3, at Bethany Lutheran church each Monday at 4 p. m. A similar hour will be held in Bethany chapel in North Escanaba Tuesdays at 3:45 o'clock. A written request from the parents will enroll any child not already a member of the Sunday School.

Canned cream of mushroom soup flavored with a little soy sauce and grated onion may be used to prepare smothered chicken. Brown the chicken as usual, add the soup and seasonings, cover the skillet tightly and finish cooking over very low heat. A little water or chicken broth may be used to thin the soup if desired.

Your Halloween dinner party will be more fun and less work if you'll plan to serve a simple menu and will give it a glamorous but easily-contrived table setting.

Use the traditional symbols of pumpkin, jack-o'-lanterns and black cats in simple but ingenious new ways to create atmosphere for your informal table setting. The Halloween harvest theme above offers ideas which are fun to adopt, easy to copy.

Against a background of a wheat-colored Irish linen cloth, a big pumpkin jack-o'-lantern, wreathed and dried wood roses and autumn leaves makes a colorful centerpiece. Miniature jack-o'-lanterns made of oranges are used as bases for place cards which guide guests to seats.

Candle holders are fenced in by ears of dried Indian corn stacked to make little square "pig pens." Candle shades are in the guise of black cats cut out from cardboard. To duplicate, simply make a cutout of a cat's head from a piece of black cardboard. Before shaping to make a shade, cut out mouth and eyes and add ears.

OUTDOOR HIAWATHALAND

By Vio Powers

Getting Ready

With a satisfactory upland bird season now history many hunters are turning in eager anticipation to preparation for the mid-November opening of the deer season. The deer seem plentiful for the archers now afield are reporting more kills than a year ago.

Camps are being built, repaired and improved by groups of hunters in all the favored hunting areas. There is a brisk business in new and second-hand deer rifles and the supply of ammunition the hunters are assembling would be ample for several Latin-American revolutions.

Last year 374,445 hunters in Michigan bagged a total of 114,451 deer. Many of the 259,994 hunters who did not bag deer had opportunities that were every bit as good as those of the successful hunters. They failed to score largely because they were not ready.

In the first place, the average deer hunter is no great shakes as a marksman. He only uses his gun for a few days out of the year and fires only a few shots, so it is no wonder that so many of the hunters tell of missing.

Top of that many hunters, through ignorance or carelessness still further handicap themselves. Year after year the errors of the hunter follow the same pattern.

The most common mistake is that of going hunting with a rifle that has not been sighted in. Even after the hunter sees the light in that matter there is a common source of error, for the gun may be sighted in with one load and the hunting will be done with one entirely different.

For instance for the .30 '06, a caliber that is popular for deer hunting, there is a wide range of factory loads, in addition to the loads dreamed up by the hand-loaders. These loads push bullets of many types in weights from 110 to 220 grains.

Many hunters will sight in the rifle with a 150-grain bullet, using up the old ammunition and then switch to a 170 or even a 220-grain slug of another type put up by a different manufacturer. Such a switch can result in a clean miss on a standing deer broadside at 100 yards or less.

Some hunters prepare for the big hunt by setting up a makeshift target at "about" 100 yards, let go one round from the off-hand position. Then, if they score a reasonable hit, decide all is well, even though they may have been holding a foot off the target when they squeezed off the shot.

Poultry Shoots

One of the most popular methods used by hunters to line up their sights for hunting is attendance at the weekend turkey, chicken and duck shoots held in many places. This method offers companionship and a chance for help from more experienced gunners as well as competition.

The Escanaba Rifle and Pistol club is planning some of this type of shooting to be held in the popular range in the bowl at the ski park. The club intends to match up gunners with the same type of equipment in any group that shows up in sufficient numbers to make up a squad.

One Shot—3 Geese

Chuck Hurn made a once-in-a-lifetime shot from a blind near the Escanaba athletic field Thursday morning when he downed three blue geese with the third blast from his automatic. One of the birds needed a finishing shot after it hit the mud.

The duck season that opened with the usual mudhen shoot has settled down to some spotty but nice shooting reported from many points from the head of the bay south and from a number of inland lakes. Geese have been bagged from several of the small points south of Ford River.

The duck hunting day in the Escanaba area now opens at 6:41 a. m. and closes at 4:57 p. m. These times will change on October 29 to opening, 6:50 a. m.; closing, 4:47 p. m.

A Proclamation

Munising—Mayor Elson Carberry has issued the following proclamation urging observance here of Navy Day next Wednesday:

Proclamation
Whereas it is the custom on one day of each year for our citizens to join hands across the Nation to render grateful tribute to our Mighty Navy. And whereas the honor and glory of our great Nation is very firmly wrapped in the Navy's traditions. And it being that a great number of our sons and daughters have contributed very nobly to this honor.

Therefore, I, Elson E. Carberry Mayor of the City of Munising do hereby proclaim Wednesday, October Twenty-Seventh, Nineteen Hundred and Forty Eight as Navy Day and call on all citizens of Munising to display the national flag and to have a feeling of honor and thankfulness in their hearts, for the men and women of our Navy, who have done so much to keep this flag waving.

Elson E. Carberry, Mayor.

CLAIM SAARI
IS FORMER REDIssue Raised In Race
For Congress

Although the congressional race between Gene Saari and John B. Bennett is up for voters of another congressional district to decide, the communist issue which has been injected in the campaign is a matter of serious interest in Manistique in view of the fact that Saari has and is prominently identified with labor activities in this area.

A recent article printed in the Grand Rapids Press and copied by the Iron Mountain News, states that Saari is a former member of the Communist party, but disclaims connection with that party at present.

The article, touching on Saari and his political affiliations, follows:

"This year, over Democratic organization protest, Gene A. Saari of Houghton, was nominated to run against Bennett. Now international representative of the Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers of America (CIO) Saari says he was a member of the Communist party in the depression."

"He resigned in 1935 or 1936, at just the time the CIO was organized." He says he has renounced all the Red tenets, although his program is close to the policy of the Communist Daily Worker and the arguments of Henry A. Wallace.

"Saari is one of the two congressional candidates in the state who received the nod from the Progressive party convention in Detroit. Since he could have expected most of the votes the Wallaceites have in the 12th anyway, it may be that their public approval of his position may be a disadvantage.

"Saari hopes a previous Communist record will not be used against him, suggesting that he was young at the time. The attitude of the Republican forces, however, indicated that it would be used extensively. Representative Bennett said his backers feel it's of major significance, and

Community Club at Thompson Meets

The Thompson Community Extension club met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Lyle Jasmin where the lesson "Legal Phases" was discussed and a short playlet was presented by Mrs. James Walker and Mrs. Stanley Shust.

The following members were present: Mrs. John Potvin, Mrs. John Stoor, Mrs. Henry Hastings, Mrs. Floyd Sample, Mrs. Oscar Jasmin, Mrs. Lyle Jasmin, Mrs. William Kaiser, Mrs. Tom Smith, Mrs. James Walker, Mrs. Stanley Shust and Mrs. Cecil Johnson.

At the close of the evening a delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Jasmin.

Another Crop of Raspberries Likely

The growing season still seems to be on in the Manistique area. Joseph Carefelle, 193 North Cedar street, while working along the Manistique river last Wednesday came upon a raspberry bush which was heavily laden with immature berries which were just beginning to turn red. He also picked a bouquet of wild strawberries. Several of the berries would have matured in a couple of days.

This was October 20th, mind you.

Newspapers of the district have demonstrated interest in the facts.

The quoted excerpts were written by William E. Pyper, political writer for the Booth newspapers who interviewed Saari.

This has been a strange fall. Folks have picked trailing arbutus, strawberry blossoms and other blossoms associated with spring in mid-October. That's unusual, but we know that winter will come with its icy breath in a few days. May we suggest that you take your winter wraps to us for cleaning and pressing. In a few days you'll have to wear them and they should be presentable.

Breezy Point Man Held in Jail For Burglary at Fox

Clifford Turley, 39, of Breezy Point, today was held in jail in Escanaba awaiting the arrival of Sheriff Ed Reindl of Menominee, who holds a warrant charging Turley with breaking and entering in the night time.

According to Sheriff William E. Miron of Escanaba, Turley last night about 8 p. m. broke into the home of Keith Peterson at Fox, on the bay shore in Menominee county, and carried away an electric motor, clothing, a toaster and other articles.

Two young men from Menominee county saw Turley's panel truck drive away, chased him and overtook him at Breezy Point in Delta county. They held him and notified sheriff's officers in Escanaba.

Fugitive Warrants Name Hoodlums In Hooper Death Case

Detroit, Oct. 23 (AP)—Harry Fleisher and Myron (Mike) Selik, ex-purple gangsters wanted to begin prison sentences on two convictions, were named today in federal fugitive warrants.

Federal Judge Arthur F. Lederer issued the warrants at the request of Oakland county Prosecutor Clyde Underwood.

The move permits the FBI to join the hunt for Fleisher and Selik, who have jumped bail totaling $80,000 on convictions in the Hooper murder conspiracy and the Aristocrat club holdup in Pontiac, U. S. District Attorney Thomas P. Thornton said he was turning a copy of the warrants over to Harry T. O'Connor, head of the FBI office in Detroit.

Fleisher and Selik face sentences of 25 to 50 years in the hold-up case and four and a half to five years on the Hooper conviction. They were found guilty with two other men of plotting to kill State Senator Warren B. Hooper nearly four years ago.

Paint Firms Fined $42,500 On Price Conspiracy Charge

Pittsburgh, Oct. 23 (AP)—Five major paint and varnish firms and six of their officers were fined a total of $42,500 on anti-trust violations charging a conspiracy to fix prices.

Fined yesterday by federal district court judge R. M. Gibson were:

General Paint Corp., San Francisco; Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co., Devoe and Reynolds Co., Inc., New York City, and the Interchemical Company, New York City, all fined $5,000 and American-Marietta Co., Chicago, $10,000.

R. D. Hullivan, vice president of General Paint, $1,000; Neil L. Fleming, Pittsburgh Plate, $3,000; David Eichelberger, American-Marietta, $2,000; Joseph Esposito, Interchemical, $3,500; Elliott Phillips, Devoe, $2,000, and C. S. Weaver, American-Marietta, $1,000.

PTA SEASON IS LAUNCHED

Session Thursday Night Is Well Attended

With well over a hundred interested parents, teachers and friends attending the first meeting of the Lakeside-Central PTA, Thursday evening in the high school auditorium, the organization embarked on a program for the coming year with a feeling of security, interest and enthusiasm.

Mrs. Carl Makel, newly-elected president of the group, in a keynote pep talk that was well-appreciated, asked for a spirit of friendliness, cooperation and fun. She called for and received suggestions as to type of program the association was interested in, on how to encourage parents to attend said meetings and means of increasing the membership.

Earl Cousineau, program chairman, introduced Stanley Carolyn, who discussed and explained the amendments two and five that so vitally affect the schools and education. He recommended the group should vote "no" on amendment 2 and "yes" on the fifth amendment. A movie "Pop Rinses the Bell" was shown by Mr. Corumbos and Mr. Malamud.

New faculty members were introduced by Carl Olson, principal of the high school and by the respective grade school principals.

Two trumpet solos, "Orion" and the "Lily Polka" by Vanierbrook were played by James Monroe, accompanied by Miss June Christensen, music supervisor of the schools.

The attendance banner was won by the fourth grade at Lakeside.

New Military Pact Planned By U. S. And Canada

British sources said the reference probably was to India, Pakistan, Ceylon, Australia, New Zealand and South Africa.

The North Atlantic alliance is expected to commit the United States and Canada to:

Build up the air, land and sea forces of the Brussels powers with arms and equipment.

Standardization of equipment and training.

Creation of a seven-nation unified military strategic command under an American commander-in-chief. The five Brussels nations recently set up a unified defense command under Britain's Marshal Montgomery.

Pledge a guarantee of each country's territorial integrity in the event of war.

Give the North American powers the right to establish air, land or sea bases in any of the five other countries.

The informants said the United States plans to enter other associations with North and South European states to bolster the Brussels alliance.

The American sources said links with Norway, Denmark, Italy, Portugal, Spain, Greece, Turkey and Iran are under active study if not negotiation.

They said U. S. military authorities are planning a flow of arms into western Europe next year.

Wilson

Episcopal Guild
Wilson, Mich.—The Zion Episcopal Guild held their meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William Kell.

Those attending from out of town were Mrs. Hartley Bagley, Mrs. Edith Rosenquist, Mrs. John Frechette, Mrs. Eric Proberg, Mrs. John Langenfeldt of Escanaba, and Mrs. Earl Bovee of Menominee.

Work is progressing very well on the finishing on the Guild Hall in the Zion Episcopal church in Wilson. Work is being done by members of the church.

Telephone Changes
The rural telephone line north-east of Powers serving the Powers and Wilson parties is being changed. The cradle telephone is now replacing the old wall type phones.

Mrs. William Garbett of Escanaba is spending a few days visiting with her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kell and family.

Wilson, Mich.—Mr. and Mrs. Milton Schaut and three children of Emmett, Idaho, are spending two weeks visiting with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. John Karki visited with the latter's son-in-law, Tuna Saarela of Vulcan, who is a patient in Penn hospital at Norway.

Earl Kell, who has been a medical patient in General hospital, Marinette for over a week, is now at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Art Eastberg in Menominee. His condition is much improved.

Donna Eastberg of Menominee is visiting at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kell.

City Briefs

Mrs. Hazel Pallin, accompanied by her niece, Sandra Sue Johnson, left Thursday for Chicago following a visit here with Mrs. Alfred Pallin, North Houghton avenue. Mrs. Clyde Johnson and Charles are remaining here for another week.

Mr. and Mrs. George J. Nicholson left Wednesday for Donna, Texas, where they will spend the winter.

Mrs. George Gorsche, Arbutus avenue, as returned to her home following a three weeks' stay in Sault Ste. Marie where she received medical treatment.

Hewett Personnel Has Meeting Here

A meeting of sales and administrative personnel of the five Hewett Grocery company wholesale houses in the Upper Peninsula will be held today and Sunday at the Delta hotel. Approximately 30 officials of the company are attending the meeting.

The company operates wholesale warehouses in Iron River, Ishpeming, Escanaba, Manistique and Sault Ste. Marie.

Engadine

Honored at Shower
Engadine—A pink and blue shower in honor of Mrs. Lawrence Vallier was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Louis Vessel. Games were played with high score awards. Mrs. Clarence Collins received the guest award.

A lunch was served after which Mrs. Vallier was presented with many lovely gifts.

Those present were Mesdames Louise Smith, Kenneth Leveille, Elmer Werner, Alvina Collins, Earl Houck, Jess Freeman, Ed Vallier, Howard Johnson, Henry Collins, Norma Brawley, Lawrence Linck and Louis Proton and Miss Selina Proton.

Mrs. Brawley and Mrs. Johnson assisted in serving the lunch.

Fred Perchinske has returned from a two weeks' visit with his daughter, Mrs. Donald Connivino in Chicago. Mrs. Connivino accompanied her father home and will spend a few weeks here with relatives.

Youthful Draftes Won't Be Bullied, Mothers Assured

York, Pa., Oct. 23 (AP)—The mothers of America had top level Army assurance today that youthful draftes will be treated as persons "of individual dignity and feelings."

Gen. Jacob L. Devers, chief of Army field forces, sounded this reassuring note in a speech last night before the state convention of the American War Mothers.

Gen. Devers, a native of York, told the mothers that the peace-time draftes are going to be "considerably different from the Army you have heard described." He painted this picture of what will happen to young recruits:

1. He will be sent to a post "as near home as possible."
2. His instructors will try "to establish a personal relationship with the incoming recruit."
3. He will be explained "the reason for everything he does which is new to him."
4. No matter how or when he arrives, "someone will meet him" and he will be given "a chance to ask questions."
5. "His uniforms are individually fitted."
6. The Army will insist "that he write home."

Gen. Devers said "American sons are marching away again, not for the winning of a war, but for the preservation of the peace."

Rapid River

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Olson, Mrs. Ole Wickstrom, Paul Erickson, Eileen Johnson and Alice Holmgren have gone to Bay City to attend the wedding of Miss Jean Kerr and Fredolph Olson, son of the Herbert Olsons, which is taking place Saturday afternoon at the bride's home.

Mrs. Emma Groleau left Friday for a weekend visit in Green Bay with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Rose Groleau.

HE'S AP STORY

Ithaca, N. Y., Oct. 23 (AP)—A. P. Story, jr., is listed as a student publicity chairman in a Cornell university directory.

His full name is Austin P. Story, jr., and he's president of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity. Yes, his fraternity brothers refer to him as "Associated Press."

DAGGER HOLDUP

Montreal, Que. Oct. 23 (AP)—Roland Goudreau, 18, was accused in court today of using a dagger to rob Mrs. Hector Champagne of a revolver. He was remanded for further hearing after she charged he held her up at knife-point and took her husband's gun.

Schaffer

Mr. and Mrs. James Stammer and son of Green Bay are visiting at the Joseph Frossard home. Royal and Arnold Taylor of N. C. O. E. spent the weekend at their parental home.

WEDDINGS TOO NOISY

Detroit (AP)—Police Commissioner Harry S. Toy is considering the demand of a civic group that noisy wedding processions "and the long, loud blowing of horns" be banned as a public nuisance. The demand was made in a resolution drawn up by the Norse Civic Association.

Grand Jury Scans Office Payrolls Of Rep. Thomas (R-NJ)

Washington, Oct. 23 (AP)—The handling of payrolls in the office of Rep. J. Parnell Thomas (R-NJ) was reported under Grand Jury scrutiny today.

Justice department officials said last night that was one of the cases presented to the Regular District of Columbia Grand Jury when it convened yesterday for its October session.

The New Jersey congressman, chairman of the House committee on Un-American Activities, has been severely critical of the justice department.

He has fruitlessly urged Attorney General Clark to seek indictments against persons involved in the committee's probe of alleged espionage. Clark said there was insufficient evidence.

The department received a petition a few weeks ago from 17 lawyers in Thomas' home district, asking an investigation into charges by columnist Drew Pearson that there had been irregularities in Thomas' Capitol Hill payroll.

Name of Michigan Lake Changed From Stalin to Clancy

Washington, Oct. 23 (AP)—Stalin is on the way out—in favor of Clancy.

The federal bureau of geographic names has been asked to make that substitution in the name of Stalin Lake, Michigan. It's one of 27 name-changes suggested for the Manistee National Forest by the Michigan geographic board, the Mason county board of supervisors and the U. S. forest service.

Some of the others:

Bass lake to Ashgun—the Indian word for bass; Mud lake to Gytija—the Swedish word for mud; Bear Creek to Muckwa—Indian word for bear; Twin Lakes to Nijode—Indian word for twin.

Clancy is not the Irish word for Stalin. Clancy was an early settler in the Wolverine state. No one knows where the lake's present name came from—at least, no one's saying.

POISON TRACES SOUGHT

Jackson (AP)—Southern Michigan Prison pathologist Dr. J. H. Ahronheim said today several weeks would elapse before laboratory tests on the exhumed body of prison inmate Criss Novakoff were completed. Novakoff's brother asked the investigation to check whether the inmate was poisoned.

DEPUTIES ELIMINATED

Bay City (AP)—In an economy move, the Bay county board of supervisors has eliminated the jobs of four safety deputies in the sheriff's office and dropped the county's veterans center from the budget.

Nash Develops 'Uniscope'

The 'Uniscope', an outstanding feature of the new 1949 Nash cars, is mounted on the steering column in direct line with driver vision. Grouped in it are all driving instruments commonly found on the cowl panel. The network of wires and cables to instruments is channeled inside the massive cylindrical jacket of the steering column.

Garden

Fellowship Meetings

Garden, Mich.—Members were entertained at the home of Mrs. Fred Olmsted of Van's Harbor Wednesday afternoon, with Mrs. Harry Larmey of Milwaukee a guest. One important item of business for discussion was the days on which the meetings should be held. The past rule has been to hold them on every other Wednesday but this was vague when considered in correspondence with other societies of the Delta parish, therefore it was decided to hold on the first and third Wednesdays of the month, the numerals coinciding with those for church services, which are held on the first and third Sundays of the month. Mrs. Walter Kreshefske of Van's Harbor will be the next hostess on Nov. 3.

A meeting of ladies of the Women's Fellowship of Delta parish Congregational churches was held at the home of Mrs. Kreshefske Tuesday with Mrs. Hummon attending. Plans were made for an all-parish get-together of the women for a training session at the Cooks church, Wednesday, Nov. 10th, commencing at 10 a. m. studies punctuated with a potluck lunch at noon.

Farewell Party

Constituents of the Garden and Fayetteville Catholic parishes met at Marygrove Tuesday night to show their appreciation of the services of Fr. William Oremus who left Thursday to serve the St. Gregory parish in Newberry. Cards were played during part of the evening and prizes awarded to Mrs. Edward Joque, Mrs. Henry Deloria and Mrs. Wm. Swaer. A large group attended and presented Fr. Oremus with a generous purse. Arrangements were carried out by the ladies of the Altar society who served icecream, cake and coffee.

Fr. Patrick Frankard from the St. Michael parish of Marquette, arrived Thursday to serve the Garden, Cooks and Fayette parishes. The Cooks parish honored Fr. Oremus at a farewell party Wednesday night.

Public Games Party

The weekly party held at the St. John hall Wednesday night was arranged by Mrs. Edward Lammotte, Mrs. Robert Elster sr., Mrs. Walter Stellwagen and Mrs. Fred Gauthier.

Briefs

Mrs. Arta Hazen and Mrs. Hess accompanied Vernon Hazen on his business trip to Munising Tuesday and visited with the Alton Olmsted family.

Mr. and Mrs. George Farley and son Larry visited with their daughter, Mrs. Walter Whitman of Manistique Sunday.

Dale Prokop of St. Ignace left here Thursday after visiting for several days with his parents. Mrs. Grace Griffin left for her home in Lake Forest, Ill., Friday after spending a week at the home of her sister, Mrs. Peter Giusiano. Accompanying her was her sister-in-law, Mrs. Mary McPhee, who went to visit with her daughter, Mrs. Ray Bero of Waukegan and later with her daughter Lucille of Detroit.

M. Gauthier of Holland, Mich., visited here Tuesday on his way to Fayette to visit his brother, Roland Gauthier, and sister, Mrs. Louis Devet.

SHOT IN BATHROOM

Saginaw (AP)—Edward Tabish, 23, is recovering in St. Mary's hospital after being shot in the chest as he stood in the bathroom at his home. Sheriff's officers said a nearby hunter may have fired a stray shot.

Attention!!

If elected to the office of Sheriff on November 2nd I Propose:

1. To put all employees of the Sheriff's office in uniform at no extra expense to the taxpayers.
2. To distinctly mark all County cars operated by the Sheriff's Department so they can be easily identified by the general public. When visibly marked, their presence on the highway acts as a caution to speeders and other traffic and law violators.

I sincerely believe the adoption of these measures will increase the efficiency of the Sheriff's department.
